Labor & Management Presents

THE FUTURE OF DEFINED BENEFIT PENSIONS

Is there Pension Security Without the NCCMP Legislative Reforms?

Join us July 16th for a CRITICAL, one-day statewide symposium led by state and national leaders from our industry addressing today's most pressing challenge: The Future of Defined Benefit Pensions. You will go home with broadened perspectives and new strategies and techniques to build legislative action.

An invitation-only event of Michigan building trades pension trustees and professionals.

SOME OF OUR FEATURED SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

Joshua Gotbaum:

Director / CEO, Pension Benefit Guarantee Corporation (PBGC)

Randy G. DeFrehn:

National Coordinating Committee on Multiemployer Plans (NCCMP)

Patrick (Shorty) Gleason:

Legislative Director, Michigan Building Trades Council

Joseph A. LoCicero:

J.D., President & CEO, The Segal Group

James S. Ray:

J.D., James S. Ray PLLC

Hon. Earl Pomeroy:

Senior Counsel, Alston & Bird LLP;
US Congressman 1993-2010

PRE-CONFERENCE RECEPTION!

Please plan on joining our kickoff of the Symposium with an opening reception from 5pm to 7pm on the evening of July 15th in Marriott's beautiful "42 Degrees North" meeting room.

This reception will be jointly sponsored with the Associated General Contractors of Michigan (AGC), who earlier that day will hold its labor management conference at the Detroit Marriott entitled: "The Future of Health Care Costs and How to Tame Them"
